

Outstanding SBO Award

MELISSA BUSH – Saraland City School System

Melissa Bush, Accounts Payable Manager for the Saraland City School System, has been selected as the 2018 recipient of the AASBO Outstanding School Business Official Award. This award recognizes individuals from the district and local school level who go above and beyond in their roles within the business operations of the school district. These deserving individuals are part of the team that makes the business operation of the school district efficient and effective.

Melissa began working for Saraland City Schools near its inception in 2008. During her tenure with Saraland, Melissa has served in various roles and duties in the business office including payroll, receptionist, fixed assets inventory and procurement. Melissa has completed the Payroll/Personnel Certificate Program and is currently working on the CSFO Professional Certificate. Prior to joining the staff at Saraland, she worked in the medical and industrial fields.

Melissa has been married to her husband, Jake, for 27 years and they have two children, Courtney & Chandler. In her spare time, Melissa enjoys tending to her plants and flowers at “Bush Gardens”, going to the beach and spending time with family and friends.
